Fluke-411D/62:

411D Laser Distance Meter & 62 IR Thermometer

AN ELECTRICIAN'S TWO BEST FRIENDS: The Fluke 411D and Fluke 62

Featuring two of Fluke's best-selling products, this kit is immediately attractive to anyone who uses a Fluke DMM or Fluke ClampMeter. Customers will like the kit because it offers them two popular tools with a bundled price for additional savings. As a Fluke distributor you will find it easy to display and help customers understand the value of these tools.

The Fluke 411D is a wildly popular addition to any electrician's tool belt. The large display and simple operation make measuring distances incredibly quick and easy!

Similarly, the Fluke 62 allows for extremely quick and convenient non-contact temperature measurements.

These two tools are essential for any electrician's daily work. Buy them together and take advantage of a bundled price!
